

talk like Shakespeare!

powered by Chicago Shakespeare Theater

Write Your Own Shakespeare!

Shakespeare was a master with words-- and now you can be, too! Cut out and rearrange the words below and see what your inner poet can come up with!

thy	doth	I	light	quarrelsome the	will	me	betray	fashionable my	t'was	you	challenge	eloquent mine	t'is	one	posess	impossible of	shall	thee	waylay	cross-gartered to	art	thou	forbear	idle or	at	king	see	lackluster not	from	villain	swagger	madcap no	for	clown	pray	rancorous yes	by	devil	hobnob	enraptured yet	be	fellow	besmirch	exceedingly should	but	clodpole	dwindle	notable would	have	braggart	champion	ignorant could	has	queen	discard	Olympian being	had	jackanape	prevail	gently been	in	madam	amaze	scurvy were	out	sir	swear	villainously was	wit	sailor	protest	cold-hearted do	ear	peace	charm	green-eyed did	hand	fury	instigate	laughable am	eye	fortune	alarm	impetuously a	heart	night	begrudge	truly mayhap	voice	day	excuse	erroneously might	sight	jewel	befuddle	always must	love	lest	forgive	never prithee	youth	know	believe	together methinks	wherefore	seem	think	apart